An Example

1 Corinthians 10:1-13

1 Corinthians 9:24-27 (NASB)

Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may win. Everyone who competes in the games exercises self-control in all things. So they do it to obtain a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable.

1 Corinthians 9:24-27 (NASB)

Therefore I run in such a way as not to run aimlessly; I box in such a way, as to avoid hitting air; but I strictly discipline my body and make it my slave, so that, after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified.

1 Corinthians 10:1-13 (NASB)

For I do not want you to be unaware,
brothers and sisters,

1 Corinthians 10:1-13 (NASB)

For I do not want you to be unaware,
brothers and sisters, that our fathers
were all under the cloud

Exodus 13:17-22 (NASB)

Now when Pharaoh had let the people go, God did not lead them by the way of the land of the Philistines, even though it was near; for God said, “The people might change their minds when they see war, and return to Egypt.” Therefore God led the people around by way of the wilderness to the Red Sea; and the sons of Israel went up in battle formation from the land of Egypt. And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for he had made the sons of Israel solemnly swear, saying, “God will certainly take care of you, and you shall carry my bones from here with you.”

Exodus 13:17-22 (NASB)

Exodus 13:17-22 (NASB)

Then they set out from Succoth and camped in Etham, on the edge of the wilderness. And the Lord was going before them in a pillar of cloud by day to lead them on the way, and in a pillar of fire by night to give them light, so that they might travel by day and by night.

Exodus 13:17-22 (NASB)

He did not take away the pillar of cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from the presence of the people.

1 Corinthians 10:1-13 (NASB)

For I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that our fathers were all under the cloud and they all passed through the sea;

Exodus 14:13-31 (NASB)

But Moses said to the people, “Do not fear! Stand by and see the salvation of the Lord, which He will perform for you today; for the Egyptians whom you have seen today, you will never see them again, ever. The Lord will fight for you, while you keep silent.”

Exodus 14:13-31 (NASB)

Then the Lord said to Moses, “Why are you crying out to Me? Tell the sons of Israel to go forward. As for you, lift up your staff and reach out with your hand over the sea and divide it, and the sons of Israel shall go through the midst of the sea on dry land.

Exodus 14:13-31 (NASB)

And as for Me, behold, I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they will go in after them; and I will be honored through Pharaoh and all his army, through his chariots and his horsemen. Then the Egyptians will know that I am the Lord, when I am honored through Pharaoh, through his chariots, and through his horsemen.”

Exodus 14:13-31 (NASB)

Then the angel of God, who had been going before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from before them and stood behind them.

Exodus 14:13-31 (NASB)

So it came between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel; and there was the cloud along with the darkness, yet it gave light at night. Therefore the one did not approach the other all night.

Exodus 14:13-31 (NASB)

Then Moses reached out with his hand over the sea; and the Lord swept the sea back by a strong east wind all night, and turned the sea into dry land, and the waters were divided. So the sons of Israel went through the midst of the sea on the dry land, and the waters were like a wall to them on their right and on their left.

Exodus 14:13-31 (NASB)

Then the Egyptians took up the pursuit, and all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen went in after them into the midst of the sea. But at the morning watch, the Lord looked down on the army of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and cloud, and brought the army of the Egyptians into confusion.

Exodus 14:13-31 (NASB)

He caused their chariot wheels to swerve, and He made them drive with difficulty; so the Egyptians each said, “Let me flee from Israel, for the Lord is fighting for them against the Egyptians.”

Exodus 14:13-31 (NASB)

Then the Lord said to Moses, “Reach out with your hand over the sea so that the waters may come back over the Egyptians, over their chariots and their horsemen.”

Exodus 14:13-31 (NASB)

So Moses reached out with his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its normal state at daybreak, while the Egyptians were fleeing right into it; then the Lord overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

Exodus 14:13-31 (NASB)

The waters returned and covered the chariots and the horsemen, Pharaoh's entire army that had gone into the sea after them; not even one of them remained. But the sons of Israel walked on dry land through the midst of the sea, and the waters were like a wall to them on their right and on their left.

Exodus 14:13-31 (NASB)

So the Lord saved Israel that day from the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore. When Israel saw the great power which the Lord had used against the Egyptians, the people feared the Lord, and they believed in the Lord and in His servant Moses.

1 Corinthians 10:1-13 (NASB)

and they all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea;

1 Corinthians 10:1-13 (NASB)

and they all ate the same spiritual food,

Exodus 16:4,35 (NASB)

Then the Lord said to Moses, “Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather a day’s portion every day, so that I may test them, whether or not they will walk in My instruction.

Exodus 16:4,35 (NASB)

And the sons of Israel ate the manna for forty years, until they came to an inhabited land; they ate the manna until they came to the border of the land of Canaan.

1 Corinthians 10:1-13 (NASB)

and all drank the same spiritual drink,
for they were drinking from a spiritual rock which followed them; and the rock was Christ.

Exodus 17:1-7 (NASB)

Then all the congregation of the sons of Israel journeyed by stages from the wilderness of Sin, according to the command of the Lord, and camped at Rephidim, and there was no water for the people to drink. So the people quarreled with Moses and said, "Give us water so that we may drink!"

Exodus 17:1-7 (NASB)

And Moses said to them, “Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the Lord?” But the people were thirsty for water there; and they grumbled against Moses and said, “Why is it that you have you brought us up from Egypt, to kill us and our children and our livestock with thirst?”

Exodus 17:1-7 (NASB)

So Moses cried out to the Lord, saying, “What am I to do with this people? A little more and they will stone me!” Then the Lord said to Moses, “Pass before the people and take with you some of the elders of Israel; and take in your hand your staff with which you struck the Nile, and go.

Exodus 17:1-7 (NASB)

Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock at Horeb; and you shall strike the rock, and water will come out of it, so that the people may drink.” And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.

Exodus 17:1-7 (NASB)

Then he named the place Massah and Meribah because of the quarrel of the sons of Israel, and because they tested the Lord, saying, “Is the Lord among us, or not?”

1 Corinthians 10:1-13 (NASB)

Nevertheless, with most of them God was not pleased; for their dead bodies were spread out in the wilderness.

Joshua 5:6 (NASB)

For the sons of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, until all the nation, that is, the men of war who came out of Egypt, perished because they did not listen to the voice of the Lord, to whom the Lord had sworn that He would not let them see the land which the Lord had sworn to their fathers to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey.

1 Corinthians 10:1-13 (NASB)

Now these things happened as examples for us, so that we would not crave evil things as they indeed craved them.

1 Corinthians 10:1-13 (NASB)

Do not be idolaters, as some of them were; as it is written: “The people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.”

1 Corinthians 10:1-13 (NASB)

Nor are we to commit sexual immorality, as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in one day.

1 Corinthians 10:1-13 (NASB)

Nor are we to put the Lord to the test, as some of them did, and were killed by the snakes.

1 Corinthians 10:1-13 (NASB)

Nor grumble, as some of them did, and were killed by the destroyer.

1 Corinthians 10:1-13 (NASB)

Now these things happened to them as an example, and they were written for our instruction, upon whom the ends of the ages have come.

1 Corinthians 10:1-13 (NASB)

Therefore let the one who thinks he stands watch out that he does not fall.

1 Corinthians 10:1-13 (NASB)

No temptation has overtaken you except something common to mankind; and God is faithful, so He will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will provide the way of escape also, so that you will be able to endure it.

Ephesians 3:20-21 (NIV)

Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.
